Eric, I got your voice mail, but I am stuck in Port meetings all day today. I will try to return your call when I get a moment between the meetings. In terms of providing bullets for Round 3 work, our tech team is pulling them together and we are planning on having them approved by Exec next Wednesday morning (Jan. 11), and provide them to you that afternoon during our Management Meeting.

Talk with you soon,

Thanks,

Jim McKenna
